

Session: The Changing Face of a Mining Company
Wednesday, Sept. 24
8-10am
Room N255, Las Vegas Convention Center, Upper Concourse

Title: A North American Perspective on a Global Market

Presenter: Don Gallagher, President, North American Business Unit, Cleveland-Cliffs Inc.

Abstract:

The Global mining industry has experienced tremendous growth in recent years in response to the high demand for raw materials. Donald J. Gallagher, President-North American business unit for Cleveland-Cliffs Inc. will discuss the global iron ore and coal mining industries and the impact on the North American market. Cleveland-Cliffs Inc is an international mining company, the largest producer of iron ore pellets in North America and a major supplier of metallurgical coal to the global steelmaking industry. The company operates six iron ore mines and three coking coal mines in North America, owns 85% of Portman Limited, a large iron ore mining company in Australia, 30% interest in the Amapa Project, a Brazilian iron ore projects, and 45% economic interest in the Sonoma Project, an Australian coking and thermal coal project.